

Financial Inclusion in the Arab Countries;
A Journey of Collaboration and Achievements

Sanabel's 2017 Conference

Transformation; a Strategic Perspective
In partnership with IFC International Finance Corporation

Trainer's Bio

ALEX SILVA

Mr. Silva has more than 30 years of experience in international finance with expertise in the evaluation and appraisal of financial intermediaries, financial engineering, strategic planning, structuring of MIVs, design, fund raising and management of investment funds, equity investing, and corporate governance. He has in-depth knowledge of the international microfinance of the Latin American, Caribbean and African financial markets and long experience working with bi/multilateral institutions and financial institutions in general.

Mr. Silva was also the manager of ProFund, Antares, ELF, HELP and RMF. Currently he acts as the Executive Director of Calmeadow, has served as a board member of numerous MFIs, MIVs and other development organizations. He has lectured on microfinance investment and governance of microcredit institutions at Boulder's Economics Institute as well as participated as a speaker in several seminars in multiple international venues. Collaborated in the preparation and review of multiple papers and documents pertaining to microfinance and sustainable development in general. He holds a BA and a MBA from Cornell University.